Editor's note:

An acquaintance of mine who had recently been introduced to the Fivefold Path had gone back to Columbo, Sri Lanka, for a visit. One day as she was crossing a busy town square, random shots from sniper fire rang out and my acquaintance, even though she hadn't quite learned to recite the Tryambakam Mantra perfectly, knew the importance of this life-giving mantra and recited it as best she could, hurrying across the square and reaching her destination safely. She credits this mantra with saving her life

Agnihotra and the process of healing

The entire universe pulsates with a coordinated rhythm. This rhythm synchronizes planets, earth and sun. The earth, nature and human body responds to this

Listen to vedic chants...

Circadian Rhythm. We human beings align and realign to this rhythm precisely at a transition point. This accord with the rhythm brings peace and wellbeing. A stress, anxiety and an infinite cycle of strife & sufferings. Agnihotra is the only way to produce this harmony between the mind, body, and the universe.

- Agnihotra is a material aid to a happy life.
- Upon Agnihotra an intense energy is projected from the Agnihotra pot. This changes the environment.
- Harmful radiation & pollutants are neutralized and transformed into nourishment.

Five Fold Path disciplines - impact - Personal experience

..., the vision on the right eye became blurry and I was seeing double, unable to drive.

Luckily, my son from Baltimore, MD, came to help me, and he strongly felt I should go to an urgent care facility in Charlottesville to be seen by a physician. Being in the city, I was unable to take taxis and able to get to a hospital to have an M.R.I. (magnetic resonance imaging) which confirmed a 2 cm tumor behind the right eye, where the blood vessels and nerves were stuck together. The ophthalmologist was very baffled, and suggested I go for a second opinion. When she told me that were she to operate, it was considered major surgery, and she might accidentally damage the muscles around the eye or, even worse, cause damage to the optic nerve, causing a loss of vision.

At about this time, I received an invitation to come to Houston, TX, to participate in the FFP in Houston and in constant Yajnya atmosphere, I heard from a friend that she had used the drops for an eye problem her mother had. After making and using these drops, one into the eye and the other rubbed into the skin beneath the eye, a follow-up M.R.I. some weeks later showed the tumor had disappeared, and, by Grace, to this day, it has not returned.

Points to Ponder

Grace:

IT is Grace that prevails from the first breath or the first step to the last breath or the objective then it is only to be worthy of 'That Grace'. It is this Grace alone that can break the bindings and fuse one with the Absolute One, the One and Only, Self Effulgent, All Powerful, unqualifiedly and yet All Alone!

It is the Grace that keeps the Sun glowing and the Moon shining, the seeds to fruit or flow and be the ocean or life to live and rejoice. Love and Joy are but the same because and That Is IT!!! And You are IT! That is the true nature of the Self!

How to Stay on the path:

Stay whole heartedly focused with the Discipline that the Sadguru has prescribed; Love will whole heartedly, very lovingly and completely... So often the seekers are devoted to the 'Self'. That 'Self' too is perishable. Then there is no room for my will. Then it is all 'That' with the One and only Almighty begins.

In technical terms The 'Ichha Shakti', 'Kriya Shakti' and the 'Gnyan Shakti', when the seeker surrendered completely then and independent self does not exist other than the Self. Then this & That are all One. Then One can say "I AM THAT I AM" or "I and my Father are One".

"Narrow (Sushkma) is the path to HIM and wide and enticing are the ways of the world."

His Message

"The Almighty is the creator, sustainer and in Him all is eventually absorbed. He is not the maker of your Karma, but the Creator of the entire universe. He has made you aware of the Sat (Truth) and the Asat (Untruth) states. You have to endure the effects of your karma good or otherwise."

- "If you habitually speak the truth, then, whatever you utter would also turn out to be the truth. The demands of Dharma are rigorous. Before you talk, you must carefully weigh your words. If you habitually speak the truth, then when you speak there is the power of the Almighty behind your words."

- "If you commit a sin, make the correction, the mode of correction is far more important than the wrong actions committed. When you forgive some one for his/her trespasses, The Almighty would forgive you, for your own sins or your sins of others."

" It is the Grace that keeps the Sun glowing and the Moon shining, the seeds to fruit or flowers to bloom or the brooks to flow and the ocean or life to live and rejoice. ."
